About Northern New Jersey Huaxia Chinese School

Northern New Jersey Huaxia Chinese School (NHXCS) is a non-profit organization registered in the state of New Jersey. NHXCS is the birthplace of the whole Huaxia Chinese School system now consisting of 19 branches spreading over New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Pennsylvania.

Founded in 1995, NHXCS has dedicated all her efforts to teaching Chinese language, promoting Chinese culture and serving the community. Now the school has nearly 200 students in over 40 small classes, including heritage Chinese, CSL (Chinese as Second Language) and talent classes such as karate, Chinese painting, Chinese calligraphy, Chinese dancing, etc.

The equal-opportunity NHXCS takes students of any age from 3 years and up with no prejudice over gender, age, race, religion, or nationality. Classes are held on Saturdays from 12:30PM to 3:40 PM except public holidays.

The new management team has determined to tighten up management, focus on education quality and make NHXCS an attractive place for everyone who dreams of learning Chinese and Chinese culture.
